

The Fifth Annual Panhandle Trace Hike

April 4 - April 12 2008

It is time to get ready for and decide about the Trace hike. This is a great hike and lots of fun, the journey from AL to Fort Pickens, a 100 mile trek. This year, as last, we are starting at the AL line just north of Blackwater River State Forest on Friday April 4th and heading south to the Gulf of Mexico at Fort Pickens.

I am taking applications this year with a 15 dollar deposit to help defray my costs of gas, postage and T-shirt. Also I am limiting the number of though hikers to 25 so the group will continue to be manageable and the camaraderie will remain great. Hikers come from all over Florida and the US and there are great friendships made during this time.

If you are interested in this nine day, 100 miles hike please call, e-mail or write to me so I can send you applications and information about the hike.
